

The Oregonian

Realtor Notes: Conference speakers to forecast market trends

Sunday, June 01, 2008

Portland State University's Center for Real Estate will host its third annual conference on June 5, 7:30 to 9:30 a.m., at the Hilton Portland & Executive Tower. Speakers include Joshua Scoville, director of strategic research for Property Portfolio Management in Boston, who will provide an economic update on the real estate market. Chris Lee, president and CEO of CEL & Associates in Los Angeles, will forecast market trends for the next several years. Tickets for $65 per person may be purchased prior to June 2 at www.foundation.pdx.edu/reaalestate. Admission is $75 at the door. For more information, call Julie Staker, 503-725-5109.

The Oregonian

PEOPLE

Managing principal broker Yvonne Davis, RE/MAX Equity Group, Clackamas, was named the Portland Metropolitan Association of Realtors Million Dollar Club's 2008 Managing Broker of the Year.

Oregon First added brokers Sherri Jorgensen and Christi Campbell, Westside; Dana Schell, Eastside; Kimberly Doyle, Gresham; and Diana Primrose, Pearl District.

John L. Scott Real Estate added Kristina Masters, Lake Oswego; Autumn Merrick, Sunset Corridor; Jeff Marlow, Sunset Corridor; and Stephen Sekora, Town Center.

COMMUNITY

Realty Trust Group brought nearly 50 principals, brokers, friends and family to Southeast Portland's Grand Central Bowl in May as part of the annual Big Brother Big Sisters Columbia Northwest Bowl for Kids' Sake fundraising event. The brokerage raised more than $7,500 for Big Brothers Big Sisters, which will fund a year of mentoring for seven metro-area children.

Submit items to Realtor Notes by noon Monday to Sunday Homes & Rentals, The Oregonian, 1320 S.W. Broadway, Portland 97201; fax 503-294-5185 or karacogswell@news.oregonian.com. All submissions are subject to approval and editing. Black-and-white photos run as space allows.

©2008 The Oregonian