

SUE COON
PARTNER, PRINCIPAL BROKER

Sue Coon is the 2008 Million Dollar Club President. She is a member of the Diamond/Platinum Million Dollar Club, and a consistent top producer. Sue was HGTV's Portland Ambassador for their filming of "National Open House" in 2007.

A licensed real estate agent since 1984, Sue's fascination with Portland's old houses and historic neighborhoods began when she purchased her first home at the age of 22. She has lived in Northeast Portland since she was thirteen years old, and her visceral understanding of neighborhood dynamics and development is well known in the industry. Sue's vast network of local contacts ensures that she often knows of properties intended for sale long before they hit the open market.

An Oregon State University and Kappa Alpha Theta alumna, Sue married her high school sweetheart in 1975 and is still happily married. As comfortable in jeans and cowboy boots as a suit and pearls, Sue retains the friendly, approachable manner she had growing up in "The Pea Capital of the World," Milton-Freewater, Oregon, population 5000.
